

Stormwater tip – March 2018

Think of all the rain we have had the past few weeks. As water flows it collects different pollutants that are left in its path (from road salt to dog poop to car wash wastewater to litter). It then travels to the nearest storm drain where it is carried to the nearest lake, pond, river or stream. Let's make sure "Only rain goes down the drain!"